FINES

The maximum cumulative overdue fine is $15.00. The maximum overdue fine per item is $3.00 for a Euclid item and $15.00 per non-Clevnet item. Patrons who receive service from the Outreach Services Department are fine exempt. Senior citizens, who are sixty (60) years of age or older are exempt from paying overdue fines on all materials with the exceptions of new books and DVDs.

ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

Based on format, items circulate for 7 to 21 days. Loan periods and renewals vary per vendor. Limit of 20 titles per card. Zinio™ magazines check out indefinitely. There are no overdue/lost charges for electronic resources.

OUTREACH SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Patrons who receive materials through the Outreach Services Department may borrow any circulating item. All items are charged out for thirty (30) days. The Department also provides deposit collection for Euclid institutions. These collections are loaned to the institution for a period of up to three (3) months.

REFUNDS FOR LOST ITEMS

Refunds will be issued for any lost EPL item that is returned in good condition within two months of payment for the item. To receive a refund a patron must have a receipt. For a lost item(s) paid for by cash or check, a refund check will be issued by the Fiscal Office. For a lost item(s) paid for by MasterCard or Visa, a credit will be issued immediately to the credit card account if the patron has the card and receipt in hand. Refunds will not be issued for any damaged material. EPL does not issue refunds for other library's lost items.

SUSPENSION OF BORROWING PRIVILEGES

When a card is in collection, all charges must be cleared to re-instate privileges. Borrowing privileges will be suspended under the following conditions:

- Fines or lost material exceed the $15.00 limit
- 25 items or more are overdue
- 25 claims return or more are on the card
- The card exceeds the item or monetary threshold
- The card is expired and fines are owed

DVD AND BLU-RAY CIRCULATION

Upon written request of a parent or legal guardian, patrons under the age of eighteen (18) will be restricted to borrowing only juvenile DVDs or Blu-rays.
